CHARLES J. FUSCHILLO JR. May 25, 2011

Ten year old Dominique Rivera of Lindenhurst recently met with Senator Charles J. Fuschillo, Jr. (R-Merrick) to discuss bullying issues.

Dominique, who is also Miss New York Preteen, told Senator Fuschillo about how her own experiences with bullying led her to start her own non-profit organization. The organization, Association of Kids Against Bullying in America, strives to help children learn how to deal with bullying, develop self-confidence, and stand up for themselves.
