

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph E. Robach

Community Connection for June 19, 2011

Joseph E. Robach

June 17, 2011

Snyder from Cohocton, who was killed in Afghanistan on June 4.

This new legislation would triple the buffer zone distance for protests around a religious service, and also allow municipalities to establish a permitting process for demonstrations at military funerals.

A recent U.S. Supreme Court decision found that protests at funerals are protected by the Constitution. However, states and municipalities have the right to enact buffers and other restrictions.

You can read more about this legislation on my website.

2011 American Cancer Society Relay for Life
Last Sunday, I had

Pond Road. The cost is $6 for adults and $3 for children 12 and under.

Scoutmaster Ken Mahon is retiring after 50+ years in scouting. A ceremony will be held on Monday night, June 20th, at Lakeview Community Church beginning at 7:30.

Tuesday, June 21st Pathway Houses will celebrate its 115th Anniversary during their Annual Meeting at Mario's Italian Steakhouse.

Wednesday night, June 22nd, the 2011 Barnard Carnival kicks off with its parade

Here is the Community Connection for the week ending Sunday, June 19th. In this week's issue, the State Legislature approves tougher laws against protests at military funerals, wrapping up American Cancer Society's Relay for Life in Greece, and the some of the upcoming events in the district this week. Happy Father's Day to all the dads!