Hurricane Preparedness Information

DEAN G. SKELOS August 27, 2011

With Hurricane Irene upon us, please take a moment to review the website of the Nassau County Office of Emergency Management where Nassau County residents can get a host of local information, such as hurricane evacuation routes and shelters and important contact phone numbers: <http://www.nassaucountyny.gov/agencies/OEM/hurricane/prepare.html>.

In addition, here's a list of important contact numbers you may wish to print out and keep on hand:
