Assemblywoman Malliotakis Invites Constituents to Play Ping-Pong at Third Avenue Festival

MARTIN J. GOLDEN September 23, 2011

Assemblyman Alec Brook-Krasny, Councilman Vincent Gentile accept challenge to ping pong match from Senator Marty Golden, Assemblywoman Malliotakis

Assemblywoman Nicole Malliotakis (R,C-Brooklyn, Staten Island) will participate in the 38th Annual Third Avenue Festival in Bay Ridge on Sunday, October 2. She is inviting constituents to come challenge her to a game of ping-pong at the corner of 80th Street and 3rd Avenue where she will be hosting matches from 3 PM to 6 PM. At 4 PM, Malliotakis will join her colleague, Senator Marty Golden, in a match against Assemblyman Alec Brook-Krasny and City Councilman Vincent Gentile.

"I am excited to participate in this storied event and hope to see many familiar and unfamiliar faces come out to play some ping-pong with me," said Malliotakis. "The Third Avenue Festival will not only promote Bay Ridge's local businesses, but will offer a fun and casual setting for constituents to meet with their local elected officials. I'm looking forward to a good challenge on the ping-pong table from the members of our community!"
