Senator Jack M. Martins, Assemblywoman Michelle Schimel and Nassau County Legislator Judi Bosworth joined together with Robin Schneider of the Eden Genesis Program to promote the upcoming 4th Annual Blazing Trails 4-Autism Four-Mile Run/Walk.

The run/walk will take place on Sunday, October 23 at 9:30 a.m. with the start and finish at Great Neck South High School, located at 341 Lakeville Road in Great Neck. Proceeds will go to the Eden II and Genesis Foundation, which supports children and adults with autism through specialized programs designed to help them achieve the highest possible quality of living throughout their lives.

To register online for the run/walk, make a donation and/or design a personalized fundraising page, visit <http://eden2.donorpages.com/blazingtrails>. You can also call the Greater Long Island Running Club at (516) 349-7646. For more information about the Eden II Programs, call (718) 816-1422 Ext. 106.
