

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Eric Adams

Senator Adams, Senator Klein, other elected officials and organizations advocate for foreclosure prevention services funding

ERIC ADAMS November 22, 2011

| ISSUE: FORECLOSURE

Image not found or type unknown

Senator Eric Adams, Senator Jeffrey Klein and other elected officials held a press conference to call upon the Governor to include funding for foreclosure prevention services in the 2012-2013 budget. Last year, the budget did not include any funding for foreclosure prevention services. Many New Yorkers are facing foreclosure on their homes, affecting communities all over the State.