New York State Senator John J. Bonacic (R/C/I – Mt. Hope) urges all New Yorkers to take a moment out of their day to remember those who gave “the last full measure of devotion” to our country seventy years ago today. “The attack on Pearl Harbor drew our country into a war in which many Americans suffered and sacrificed to bring freedom to millions of people the world over” said Senator Bonacic. “We must take the time today to remember and honor the sacrifice of all our veterans and their families, and thank them for protecting our freedom.”
