Statement from Senator McDonald on Capital Region Economic Development Awards

ROY J. MCDONALD December 9, 2011

"This is the first phase in an economic development plan attempting to change what had become an anti-business culture in New York State," said Senator Roy McDonald (R-Saratoga). "I am proud to be a part of the process that will attempt to jump start growth not only in Rensselaer and Saratoga counties, but through all of New York State. I congratulate those successful bids and look forward to working with those proposals still under consideration."
