

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Ruben Diaz

Anti-Crime Forum Tonight in Parkchester

RUBEN DIAZ January 19, 2012

| ISSUE: CRIME

Anti-Crime Forum Tonight in Parkchester

Hundreds of Bronx residents are expected to attend tonight's 2nd Anti-Crime Forum in the Parkchester area of the Bronx.

This anti-crime forum, which has been coordinated and sponsored by State Senator Rev. Rubén Díaz and Mr. Luis Sepulveda, Esq., a community leader, will take place tonight, Thursday, January 19th at 6:00 p.m. in the auditorium of St. Raymond's Catholic Church located at 1700 Purdy Street between Metropolitan Avenue and East Tremont Avenue in Bronx County.

Among the panelists for this forum, "Crime in Parkchester: Reality or Perception", will be Inspector Charlie Ortiz, Commanding Officer of the 43rd Precinct, the Directors of Security for Parkchester South and Parkchester North, and a member of the New York Transit Authority, among others.

For more information please call Ms. Brenda Candelaria at (718) 991-3161.