| ISSUE: COMMUNITY REINVESTMENT

State Senator Jack Martins went to lunch at Elmont's newest restaurant on Dutch Broadway called "LENA" Dominican Restaurant. The restaurant was opened by Elmont Memorial and Dutch Broadway School graduate Edwin Fernandez and his wife Mercedes. The restaurant serves Dominican and American cuisine and is open seven days a week. The restaurant is located in the "Ryans" store shopping plaza across the street from Dutch Broadway School. Senator Martins was given a tour of the restaurant and enjoyed lunch with the owners. "I want to wish Edwin and Mercedes the best of luck with "LENA" Restaurant. t's so great to see our young people coming back to the community and striving for their dreams. I was happy to support them and will be dropping by for lunch again," said Senator Martins.
