

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Ruben Diaz

Senator Reverend Ruben Diaz Accepts Invitation to Rally for Traditional Marriage in Trenton

Ruben Diaz

February 14, 2012

February 14, 2012

For Immediate Release

Senator Reverend Ruben Diaz Accepts Invitation to Rally for Traditional Marriage in Trenton

New York State Senator Reverend Ruben Diaz (D-Bronx) and fellow Ministers from the New York Hispanic Clergy Organization have accepted an invitation to travel to the New Jersey State Legislature in Trenton to join New Jersey ministers in support of Traditional Marriage. The Pentecostal ministers will depart from the Bronx on Thursday, February 16, 2012 at 9AM from the Christian Community Neighborhood Church located at 1437 Longfellow Avenue (between Jennings and Freeman Avenues).

Senator Rev. Diaz stated: "I am honored that Rev. Jose C. Lopez, the President of the Evangelical Pastors Association of Hudson County, has invited me and my ministers to join him along with Brian Brown, President of the National Organization for Marriage, to once again unite in prayer for the protection of the traditional family."

The Press is welcome to attend both the bus departure from the Bronx at 9:00 AM and the Trenton Rally at 12:00 noon.