

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph E. Robach

Community Connection for Week Ending March 4th, 2012

JOSEPH E. ROBACH March 2, 2012

A great resource in this regard is the NYS Department of Taxation and Finance website, which is loaded with information to help you file your taxes accurately, on-time, and in the most cost-effective way possible. As always, if you have any questions, my staff and I are here to help. Both Federal and New York State Income Tax Forms are available in my office, along with instruction booklets. Please feel free to contact my office at 225-3650 or e-mail me at robach@nysenate.gov and we'll do whatever we can to get you the answers you need.	low-income working families in Monroe County with free tax prep and financial counseling. Also Friday, Finger Lakes Health System Agency will celebrate three years of Heathi Kids' successes. Saturday, March 10th, from Noon until 3:00 p.m. Sisters For a Better Black Community are holding their 37th Annual Scholarship Luncheon & Fashion Show. This is at the Burgundy Basin Inn, 1361
Celebrating Black History Month Recently, I had the

In this week's Community Connection, information regarding income taxes and changes for this filing season, celebrating Black History Month at School #36, and upcoming events in the week ahead. Click the link below to download a full-screen PDF version.