Senator Reverend Ruben Diaz and Assemblyman Marcos Crespo to Meet in Soundview Today to Help Family of Tragic Car Accident

New York State Senator Reverend Ruben Diaz (D-Bronx) and Assemblyman Marcos Crespo (D-Bronx) will meet with Mr. Juan Gonzalez today at 4:00PM at 634 Taylor Avenue in the Soundview Section of the Bronx to discuss how the community can help the relatives of the seven victims of yesterday's tragic car accident. Mr. Gonzalez lost his wife and children and other family members in a fatal car accident when the car carrying his family crashed through guardrails on the Bronx River Parkway.

Senator Reverend Diaz stated: "My prayers and condolences go out to the Gonzalez family as they grieve the tragic loss of their seven family members. I am hopeful that we find ways for our community and for the people of New York to help the Gonzalez family during this very difficult time."

For further information, please contact Senator Rev Diaz at (718) 496-4793.
