Four Staten Island Organizations in the Running for Prestigious Partners in Preservation Restoration Grants – Show Your Staten Island Pride and Vote Today!

ANDREW J LANZA May 4, 2012

Four Staten Island organizations are in the running for prestigious partners in preservation restoration grants.

Show your Staten Island pride and help the Island's own Alice Austen House Museum, Our Lady of Mount Carmel Shrine, Rossville AME Zion Church, and Staten Island Museum @ Snug Harbor win preservation grants for their historic buildings.

American Express, partnering with the National Trust for Historic Preservation, is committing $3 million in preservation grants to historic places in New York City through its community-based program, Partners in Preservation.
