Senator Fuschillo Offers Free Internet Safety Brochure for Families

CHARLES J. FUSCHILLO JR. June 11, 2012

Senator Charles J. Fuschillo, Jr. (R – Merrick) is offering a free cyber-safety brochure to help parents keep their children safe and secure while using the Internet.

The Internet Safety: What Every Parent Should Know brochure provides information about how parents can utilize parental control tools to help keep their children safe while using the Internet.

The brochure also offers a list of “simple rules for online safety” that parents can instruct their children to follow so that they protect themselves when going online. Additionally, the brochure offers tips on ground rules parents can establish with their children before using the Internet.

Parents interested in obtaining a free copy of the Internet Safety brochure can contact Senator Fuschillo’s office at 516-882-0630 or email him by clicking here.
