3-on-3 Tournament Hosts Elmont Soccer Clinic with Special Guests

JACK M. MARTINS June 19, 2012

The Martins Classic 3-on-3 Basketball Tournament announced today that they were teaming up with the Elmont Soccer Club for a youth and high school Soccer Clinic during the July 14th tournament being held at Dutch Broadway School. The clinic will run all day and is being Chaired by Elmont Soccer Club President Richard “Kiki” DeBrosse and former Stonybrook Soccer Goalie Darian Bryan. The tournament is sponsored by Senator Jack Martins and State Senate Majority Leader Dean Skelos.

The 3-on-3 Tournament is a day-long basketball event with event to entertain and develop a community like day at the Dutch Broadway School. Soccer Clinic Chair Darian Bryan also announced that former Elmont and Sewanhaka Soccer stars will be in attendance and lending their considerable talents to the clinic. Soccer stars Aaron Dennis, Justin Okoro, Jules Riche, Ahkeel Rodney, Ajani Jones, “Ace” Stephane Sarpong, Lateef Adeyemi and Jonathan Lewis will be on site during the clinic.

“It’s a real honor to be a part of the Senator Martins Classic,” said Villanova Soccer Star Aaron Dennis adding, “the clinic is for everyone no matter what your skill level is.”

Senator Martins also announced that the Long Island Rough Riders Soccer team, Portugese Soccer Club and NY-NJ Red Bulls are also active partners in the clinic. “The Long Island Rough Riders, Portugese Soccer Club and the Red Bulls are making this clinic very special for all of our soccer stars. I’m very proud that we are partnering with the Elmont Soccer Club during the 3-on-3,” said Senator Martins.

Soccer Chair Darian Bryan added, “This year’s tournament and clinic is going to be the best ever. Whether you play basketball, soccer or football there will be something for everyone.”

The 3-on-3 Tournament is being played on July 14th at the Dutch Broadway School. Basketball Tournament forms can be attained by emailing dutchtourney@gmail.com or by calling Senator Martins’ office at 746-5924. Tip off for the tournament is at 10am.
