

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph E. Robach

Community Connection for Week Ending Sunday, August 5th

JOSEPH E. ROBACH August 3, 2012

<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Minors under the age of 18 now need to have written parental consent in order to receive body piercings. These are piercings for any body part, other than the ear.• High school graduates who achieve proficiency in English and a second language will receive special recognition for their achievement.• Retirees of Eastman Kodak are able to purchase experience rated health insurance coverage in the event that the company ends health benefits in the future. For more information regarding any of these pieces of legislation, visit my website at www.robach.nysenate.gov.	visiting my website or following me on Facebook. National Night Out is held in communities throughout the country. It is a night to heighten crime and drug prevention awareness; generate support for local anti-crime programs; and let criminals know that neighborhoods are joining together in the effort to help prevent crime. Friday, August 10th, the 2012 Hamlin Fire Department Parade begins at 7:00 p.m. at Tops Supermarket in Hamlin. The 2012 Hamlin Fire Department Carnival takes place from Thursday, August 9th through Sunday, August 12th.
Youth Burn Survivor's Summer Camp

In this week's Community Connection, Governor Cuomo signs three pieces of legislation, that I was proud to sponsor, into law; upcoming events around our community; and youth get a send-off at a Rochester fire station before 'Burn Camp 2012'. As always, you can click the link below to read this week's community connection in full-screen.