

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph E. Robach

Community Connection for Week Ending Sunday, September 2nd

Joseph E. Robach

August 30, 2012

 Preparing our kids for a new school year can be a fun and exciting time, but with so many families feeling an economic crunch these days, it can be a stressful time as well. That's why I wanted to remind you of some good news that is sure to help your back-to-school budget. Shoppers will not pay state sales tax on clothing purchases up to $110. Clothing purchases can be a big part of a family budget, and I was pleased to support this tax cut. Best wishes to all of our students for a successful 2012-2013 school year!	at 12:30 p.m. For more information regarding this year's parade, including the route, visit www.rochesterlabor.org/parade.html. On Tuesday, September 4th, the Ridge Road Fire District, located at 1299 Long Pond Road, is hosting a community blood drive from 1:00 until 6:00 p.m. School #54 will hold a special kick-off event to celebrate the beginning on the new school year. The kickoff ceremony is scheduled for Wednesday, September 5th from 10:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m.
New Playground at School #36 Earlier this week, I had the privilege to be a part of the ground

In this week's Community Connection, an important reminder for back to school shopping, upcoming events around the area in the week ahead, and kicking off the new school year with kids at School #36! Click the link below to read this week's community connection in full-screen.