Remembering September 11th

JOHN A. DEFRANCISCO September 11, 2012

As we pause today to mark the 11th anniversary of the September 11 attacks, my thoughts and prayers are with the family members, who lost loved ones on that tragic day. I also pause to honor all of the first responders, who sacrificed their lives trying to save others in the Twin Towers. Please join with me in remembering all of the victims and survivors of 9/11, and in showing our continued support for our brave military that continues to defend this strong and resilient nation.
