

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Patty Ritchie

Reminder: Ritchie to Host Job and Career Fair Wednesday

PATTY RITCHIE September 17, 2012

| ISSUE: ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, LABOR, SMALL BUSINESS, UNEMPLOYMENT, JOB TRAINING OR TRADES

Event to Feature More than 60 Employers

State Senator Patty Ritchie has announced that 64 employers have signed-on for her Job and Career Fair, which will be held on Wednesday September 19th in Ogdensburg at the Odd Fellows Hall on Linden Street from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m.

“The number of businesses and organizations expected at my Job and Career Fair is a true testament to the fact that there are employment opportunities out there for job-seekers,” said Senator Ritchie.

“I’m happy to be able to provide a chance for these hardworking people to find employment and put their skills and talents to use.”

People attending the fair will also have the opportunity to access tips on resume writing, interview techniques and other skills to help make the job-hunting process more successful.

People looking to preregister for the event or view a list of the more than 60 employers signed up for the fair can click here.