Senator Charles J. Fuschillo, Jr. (R-Merrick) recently participated in the annual Bellmore Street Festival, where he offered information about various state programs and services and spoke with residents about a host of different issues.

The Bellmore Street Festival is one of Long Island's largest street festivals, drawing over 100,000 people into the heart of downtown Bellmore each fall. The Festival showcases the small businesses and services throughout 25 square blocks in the Bellmore community, as well as provides entertainment and fun activities for families. This is the 26th year the Chamber of Commerce of the Bellmores has sponsored the community festival for the Bellmore community.
