Senator Fuschillo, Supervisor Murray, & Long Island Cares to Sponsor Food Distribution Program This Saturday to Help Families Affected by Hurricane Sandy

CHARLES J. FUSCHILLO JR. November 9, 2012

Senator Charles J. Fuschillo, Jr. (R-Merrick), Hempstead Town Supervisor Kate Murray, and Long Island Cares announced that they will be partnering together in sponsoring a free mobile food distribution program this Saturday to help residents affected by Hurricane Sandy.

The program will take place this Saturday, November 10th starting at 10 am at Seamans Neck Park, located at 2700 South Seamans Neck Road in Seaford. Over 15,000 pounds of food, water, and supplies will be brought to the park to serve the victims of Hurricane Sandy who are in need.

Residents will be able to obtain the following items free of charge:

- Non-perishable food items (pastas, grains, and mixed vegetables)
- Cereal
- Protein bars
- Water
- Baby food, formula, and juice
- Pet Food
- Bleach

Individuals will be served on a first come, first served basis. No appointments are required.

For more information, please call Senator Fuschillo's office at 516-882-0630 or Long Island Cares at 631-582-FOOD.
