

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Jack M. Martins

Statement on House of Representatives Adjourning Without Approving Sandy Aid

JACK M. MARTINS January 2, 2013

| ISSUE: LOCAL GOVERNMENT, NATIONAL DISASTERS

| COMMITTEE: LOCAL GOVERNMENT

STATEMENT ON HOUSE ADJOURNING WITHOUT APPROVING AID FOR SANDY RECOVERY

"There are people living without heat, running water and electricity during the coldest days of the winter and the House of Representatives adjourns without approving the aid for Hurricane Sandy recovery. Shame on them. There are people struggling from the effects of a devastating storm. To just go home without even a vote is inexcusable."