

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Andrew J. Lanza

Global Clothing Retailer, Uniqlo, Visiting Staten Island Churches Tomorrow to Donate Warm Clothing and Volunteer Efforts to Hundreds of Sandy-Affected Families

ANDREW J LANZA January 4, 2013

*UNIQLO's "United in Warmth" 10 Community Donation Program
Distributing Premium Ultra Light Down Coats and HEATTECH Clothing Items at St. Margaret Mary Church and Our Lady Help of Christians Church Saturday, January 5th, 11:00 a.m.*

DETAILS: UNIQLO, the global clothing retailer, will join Our Lady Help of Christians Church and Saint Margaret Mary Church to deliver warm clothing donations to hundreds of individuals and families on Staten Island this Saturday.

This is part of UNIQLO's "United in Warmth" relief program that will visit 10 communities in NY and NJ hit hardest by Sandy to bring warm clothing donations to families this winter. Uniqlo will bring volunteers to Staten Island to distribute HEATTECH clothing items for adults and children, as well as men's and women's premium ultra down coats.

UNIQLO is partnering with the Mayor's Fund to Advance New York City, the New York City Housing Authority, the NYC Department of Youth and Community Development, the State of New Jersey and the Hurricane Sandy New Jersey Relief Fund.

For more information visit:

Program Website: <http://www.uniqlo.com/us/united-in-warmth/>

Press Release: <http://www.fastretailing.com/eng/csr/news/1212111000.html>

WHERE: St. Margaret Mary Church - 560 Lincoln Ave., Staten Island, NY 10306 -and- Our Lady Help of Christians Church - 7396 Amboy Road, Staten Island, NY 10307

WHEN: Saturday, January 5, 2013, 11:00 AM Until supplies last