

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Thomas F. O'Mara

Sen. O'Mara encourages local input on '2013 Economic and Fiscal Survey'; Legislature continues public budget hearings today, watch today's hearing on education live beginning at 10 a.m.

Thomas F. O'Mara

January 29, 2013

Albany, N.Y., January 29—State Senator Tom O’Mara (R-C, Big Flats), a new member of the Senate Finance Committee which this week began a series of public hearings on Governor Andrew Cuomo’s 2013-14 proposed state budget, has launched an online “2013 Economic & Fiscal Survey” that invites area residents to share their views on several of the key economic and fiscal challenges facing New York this year.

The second-term state senator said the new online survey offers an opportunity for local constituents to share their own views and suggestions on this year’s state budget.

“This online survey provides another avenue to encourage local input on several of the key economic and fiscal challenges facing our region and the state as a whole in 2013. I’m always grateful for the input,” said O’Mara, whose 58th Senate District includes all of Chemung, Schuyler, Steuben and Yates counties, and part of Tompkins County (the city of Ithaca, and the towns of Enfield, Ithaca, Newfield, and Ulysses).

Click here to share your views.

O’Mara said that the public budget hearings being conducted by the Legislature’s fiscal committees – the Finance Committee in the Senate, and the Assembly Ways and Means Committee – can be viewed online through the following Senate website:

<http://www.nysenate.gov/calendar/live>

Today's hearing covers "Elementary and Secondary Education."