

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Patty Ritchie

Ritchie Meets WITH North Country Catholics at Annual Catholic Conference in Albany

PATTY RITCHIE March 22, 2013

| ISSUE: FAMILIES, CONSTITUENTS CORNER

State Senator Patty Ritchie recently met with North Country Catholics led by Ogdensburg Bishop Terry LaValley, who visited Albany to take part in the annual Catholic Conference.

Those in attendance discussed a variety of issues with Senator Ritchie, including their opposition to Governor Cuomo's abortion expansion proposal as well as support for Catholic schools.

(Pictured from left to right in the above photo are Reverend Douglas Lucia, Dolores Surowiec, Sister Ellen Rose Coughlin, Fran Lynch, Beti Ann Honan, Joan Boulio, Senator Ritchie and Bishop of Ogdensburg Terry LaValley.)