

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph E. Robach

Community Connection for Week Ending Sunday, March 24th

JOSEPH E. ROBACH March 22, 2013

on the computer. The dramatic increase in the use of computers, and ever-increasing interconnection through the Internet and other networks, have fundamentally altered the types of crimes that can be committed and the ease with which individuals can be victimized. Most notably, the anonymity of cyberspace is the perfect medium for Predatory crimes against vulnerable individuals. This legislation would increase current penalties for such crimes and classify them as felonies. For more information on this new legislation, log onto my website at robach.nysenate.gov.	Thursday, March 28th, Carriage Factory, located at 33 Litchfield Street, will hold a ground breaking ceremony beginning at 2:00 p.m. Also Thursday, the Greece Chamber of Commerce will hold a networking luncheon from 11:45 a.m. until 1:15 p.m. at Ridgemont Country Club, 3717 W. Ridge Road. The topic of the luncheon will be the 2013 outlook for the hospitality industry in the Rochester area. On Saturday, March 30th, the Town of Gates will hold an Easter Egg Hunt from 9:45
Important Tax Filing Reminder With less than a month until the tax deadline on Monday, April 15th, I am writing to let you know that if you made less than $57,000 in 2012, you are eligible to visit www.irs.gov/freefile to prepare and e-file your federal tax

In this week's Community Connection: the New York State Senate passes legislation increasing penalties for criminals who commit on-line crimes against children, upcoming events around the area, and important tax information if you have not filed your returns yet.
