| ISSUE: ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Senator Charles J. Fuschillo, Jr. (R-Merrick) will be holding a Job Resource Expo to help individuals looking for jobs better prepare themselves to find employment. The event will be held on Friday, May 3rd from 10 am to 12 pm at the Freeport Recreation Center, which is located at 130 East Merrick Road in Freeport.

“The current job market is extremely competitive, but there are programs and services that can help residents improve their chances of finding employment. This event will enable individuals to learn about job training and educational programs, have their resumes reviewed, and learn other steps they can take to give themselves the best chance to succeed in their job search,” said Senator Fuschillo.

Senator Fuschillo’s job resource expo will help job seekers learn tools that will help improve their chances of gaining employment. Those in attendance can have their resumes reviewed, learn interviewing skills & job searching tips, and speak with career counselors.

Participants can also learn about:

- Job training programs

- Upcoming civil service exams
- Higher Education
- Social service assistance programs
- Vocational & Educational Services for individuals with disabilities
- Starting a small business
