Senator Charles J. Fuschillo, Jr. (R-Merrick) recently attended the Village of Lindenhurst's "Resources for Residents" Superstorm Sandy Recovery Expo.

The event, which was sponsored by the Village and held at the Rainbow Senior Center, allowed residents affected by Superstorm Sandy to get information about recovery services and assistance from numerous government and non-profit agencies and local community groups.

Senator Fuschillo (second right) is pictured as he speaks with representatives from Camp Bulldog and Lindy Manpower at the "Resources for Residents" expo. He is joined by Deputy Mayor Kevin McCaffrey (right).
