

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Jose M. Serrano

Senator Serrano Writes Letter to the U.S. Postal Service Urging them not to Relocate the Tito Puente Post Office branch in East Harlem

JOSÉ M. SERRANO April 18, 2013

| ISSUE: COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Senator Serrano wrote a letter to the United States Postal Service (USPS) urging them to keep the Tito Puente Post Office branch open at its current location in East Harlem. The USPS has proposed the downsizing and relocation of this branch. This branch is the only Post Office located in the upper section of East Harlem, and its relocation would burden countless residents who will not be able to utilize their services. Click link below to read full letter.