

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Charles J. Fuschillo Jr.

Senator Fuschillo Congratulates Copiague High School Students for Award Winning “Amazing Animal” Photos

CHARLES J. FUSCHILLO JR. April 19, 2013

Senator Charles J. Fuschillo, Jr. (R-Merrick) recently visited Copiague High School to congratulate two students who earned awards in his “Amazing Animals” Photo Contest. The contest gave residents of all ages a fun way to show their appreciation for animals.

Julia Woelk was chosen as a 1st place winner Christopher Falci received an honorable mention for his photo submission. Both students are part of Ms. Lorraine Ciccotto’s digital photography class. The entire class submitted entries into the contest.

Julia and Christopher's photos, along with the rest of the photo submissions, will be available for viewing on Senator Fuschillo's website, Fuschillo.nysenate.gov.

Senator Fuschillo is pictured as he congratulates Copiague High School students Julia Woelk and Christopher Falci for their award winning entries in his "Amazing Animals" Photo Contest.