

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph E. Robach

Community Connection for Week Ending Sunday, May 12th

Joseph E. Robach

May 10, 2013

Bill S3768 allows funds from the Breast Cancer Research and Education Fund to be used towards breast cancer mapping initiatives. The Fund supports research or educational programs which focus on the causes, prevention, screening, treatment and cure of breast cancer research. This legislation would add breast cancer mapping to the programs which currently include basic, behavioral, clinical, demographic, environmental, epidemiologic and psychosocial research.

With Mother's Day being celebrated this Sunday, visit my website for information from the Breast Cancer Coalition of Rochester regarding the importance of being screened for breast cancer.

New York State Women of Distinction

Earlier this week, I had hold a Salute to Veterans event to honor residents at the center. The ceremony is from 2:00 until 4:00 p.m.

Also, on Thursday, BLU Bar & Grill, located at 250 Pixley Road in Gates, will hold its official grand opening from 5:00 until 8:00 p.m.

Saturday, May 18th, is the 2013 Armed Forces Day Luncheon at the Diplomat Party House from 11:45 a.m. until 1:15 p.m.

On Sunday, May 19th, the Genesee Valley/Finger Lakes Division of the March of Dimes will hold its annual

In this week's Community Connection: new legislation to provide more resources for breast cancer research, the New York State Senate honors Women of Distinction, and upcoming events in the week ahead. To read this week's community connection in full-screen view, click on the link below.