(East Harlem) - Senator José M. Serrano joined Prince Harry (Prince Henry of Wales), New York Yankee 1st Baseman Mark Teixeira and Harlem RBI to celebrate the announcement of The Royal Foundation's partnership with Harlem RBI's Project Coach, a youth mentorship program. Harlem RBI, a nonprofit organization designed to provide inner-city youth with opportunities, partnered with Prince Harry to implement Project Coach to help local youths recognize their potential and realize their dreams by coaching and playing on teams.

"I am delighted to help celebrate the partnership between The Royal Foundation and Harlem RBI," said Senator Serrano. "It is important to provide our children with a warm environment where they can feel comfortable showcasing their talents. Many thanks to Prince Harry, on behalf of The Royal Foundation, and Harlem RBI for providing the youths of our community with an outstanding mentorship program that will benefit generations to come," concluded Serrano.
