

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Martin J. Golden

Golden Joins Forces WITH Nyc to Clean Graffiti in Honor of Brooklyn-Queens Day

MARTIN J. GOLDEN June 5, 2013

NYC Graffiti Free trucks to clean graffiti across Community Boards 10 & 11

Brooklyn – State Senator Martin J. Golden (R-C-I, Brooklyn), in honor of Brooklyn-Queens Day, working with NYC Graffiti Free and the Mayor's Office, will be sending graffiti cleanup trucks throughout Community Board 10 and 11 tomorrow, June 6, 2013.

These trucks will be removing graffiti from all properties who have signed up for the Graffiti Free Program.

The day will kick off at 10 AM at 6401 18th Avenue, Brooklyn.

Members of the media are welcome.

WHO: Senator Golden,

WHAT: Press Conference on Graffiti Free NYC

WHEN: Thursday, June 6, 2013

WHERE: 6401 18th Avenue, Brooklyn