Martin J. Golden

June 25, 2013

Students, Community, Faculty and Parents to Cheer Her on Final Day

Brooklyn – State Senator Martin J. Golden (R-C-I, Brooklyn) will be among the local leaders, faculty members, parents and students of Intermediate School 201, who will cheer for Madeleine Brennan, as school is dismissed, on her last day as Principal of the Dyker Heights Intermediate School, located at 8010-12th Avenue in Brooklyn at approximately 11:00 a.m.

Brennan is the longest serving Principal in the City of New York and will be retiring tomorrow, after 50 years as Principal of this school.

Prior to her appointment as Principal, she served as Assistant Principal and as a teacher, both also at I.S. 201.

Members of the media are encouraged to attend.
