State Still Taking Assessment Information for Summer Storms

GEORGE D. MAZIARZ August 26, 2013

| ISSUE: STORMS

The State came out with a new 1-800 number today for individuals and businesses to call and submit their assessment information from both the storm in Lockport on June 28th, and the storm that hit Niagara County on July 19th. If you were unable to submit your information when the mobile command centers were in town, you can still submit information via this new number. There are also individuals available to answer your questions. The number is:
