

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Eric Adams

Senator Adams organized 200 Black Men, Law Enforcement Professionals for Anti-Violence March Through Brownsville

ERIC ADAMS September 9, 2013

| ISSUE: CRIME, GUN CONTROL, MURDER OR HOMICIDE

For more coverage on this story, view Fox 5, ABC 7, and PIX 11 news clips. Dramatizing that fighting crime is serious business, Sen. Adams, Assemblyman Karim Camara, black male Brooklynites, advocates and members of the National Association of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) came together in suits & ties to stand against violence after tragic shooting of 1-yr-old Antiq Hennis. The 200+ group called for an improved relationship between community and police to prevent crime before it happens, and ensure criminals are brought to justice.