

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Patty Ritchie

Ritchie Honors Longtime Library Volunteer

PATTY RITCHIE September 13, 2013

| ISSUE: ARTS AND CULTURE

State Senator Patty Ritchie recently visited the Pulaski Public Library, where she presented longtime library volunteer Edith Marie Switzer Cox with a proclamation for her service to the community.

Edith is 93 years old and has volunteered at the Pulaski Public Library for 50 years; working behind the scenes two days every week to help the library become an educational and cultural center.