

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Patty Ritchie

Ritchie Visits Williamstown Library

PATTY RITCHIE | October 17, 2013

| ISSUE: EDUCATION

State Senator Patty Ritchie recently visited the Williamstown Library in Oswego County, which was the recipient of $3,000 in special funding secured by the Senator.

This award is part of $161,000 in special funding the senator was able to secure in addition to a $4 million increase in state budget aid for libraries across New York State.

(Senator Ritchie is pictured in the above picture with John Hamblin, Williamstown Town Supervisor and Bev Ripka, Director of the Williamstown Library)

