

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Patty Ritchie

Ritchie Cuts Ribbon on New Victims Assistance Center Shelter

Patty Ritchie

October 23, 2013

ISSUE:

- Families
- Domestic Violence

State Senator Patty Ritchie joined Victims Assistance Center of Jefferson County staff and board members as well as local community members recently to cut the ribbon on the organization's new shelter.

Serving the community since 1979, the Victims Assistance Center assists and provides direct services to victims of violence and crime in Jefferson County.