RIVERDALE, NY - Joined by Rabbi Levi Y. Shamtov, Executive Director of Chabad Lubavitch, along with community and faith Leaders of Riverdale, Senator Jeff Klein (D-Bronx/Westchester) lit the Menorah at the bell tower monument on Henry Hudson Parkway in Riverdale on the fifth night of Chanukah.

Senator Klein said: "Chanukah is a celebration of the resilience of the Jewish people. It's always a joy to spend time during Chanukah with family and friends like Rabbi Shamtov. I was honored to light the Riverdale Menorah on the fifth night, and I hope everyone throughout New York enjoys a happy and healthy Chanukah."
