

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Thomas F. O'Mara

'Watchdog Report: Buyers, renters left in dark on former meth-making in their new home'

THOMAS F. O'MARA December 18, 2013

| ISSUE: CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES

A special "Watchdog Report" in the Sunday, December 15, 2013 Star-Gazette highlighted the reemergence of meth across the Southern Tier and devoted special examination to the need for a state law to disclose to potential homebuyers if a residence is the site of a former meth lab.

Read more, "Buyers, renters left in dark on former meth-making in their new home"

In addition to pushing for the enactment of legislation in 2014 to address the hazards of meth labs, Senator O'Mara will also continue to sponsor to further outlaw the sale and manufacturing meth.