January 10, 2014

Brooklyn- State Senator Marty Golden (R-C-I, Brooklyn) has once again agreed to be a host site for the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program, offering free tax preparation services to those residents whom make less than $30,000 annually.

Appointments will be available at his district office located, at 7408 5th Avenue, on Thursdays and Sundays from February 16th through April 13th. Thursday appointments will be scheduled from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and Sunday appointments will be from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Senator Marty Golden stated "I once again look forward to helping hundreds of my constituents complete their tax returns at no charge. For 16 years, the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program has proven to be an invaluable service to those who qualify. This year will be no different in that we offer an opportunity for low income constituents to keep the money in their pockets that they would otherwise have spent on tax preparation services."

Appointments are necessary and can be scheduled by calling Senator Golden's district office at (718) 238-6044.
