Dozens of Ready-to-Hire Businesses Featured at April 3rd Event

State Senator Patty Ritchie is asking all those looking for work to mark their calendars for her annual St. Lawrence County Job Fair. Taking place on April 3rd, the free event will feature dozens of businesses looking to hire as well as opportunities for individuals to access tools to make their job search easier.

“It’s no secret that there are a significant number of people in our region who are looking for work,” said Senator Ritchie.

“One of my top priorities is creating jobs, but that’s just part of the puzzle. Getting our economy back on track also depends on matching people with employers who are looking for talented, hardworking individuals who can make a difference, and that’s what this event does.”

The free event will take place from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. at Ogdensburg’s Oddfellows Hall. Those attending are encouraged to bring a copy of their resume.

Senator Ritchie encourages those who cannot attend her St. Lawrence County Job Fair to visit her online Jobs Bank—which features thousands of jobs available across New York State—available here.
