Event Will Feature 65 Employers

State Senator Patty Ritchie is reminding those who are looking for work that her St. Lawrence County Job Fair will take place on Thursday April 3rd.

The event will feature 65 employers—many that are looking to hire immediately—as well as opportunities to access job tools to make their job search easier. Click here to see a full list of participating employers.

“Getting people back to work is so vital to reenergizing our economy in Upstate New York. This event will be a one-stop-shop of sorts for anyone who is looking for a job or needs tips on how to make yourself marketable,” said Senator Ritchie.

“I’m thrilled to once again be able to host this job fair and would like to thank the featured businesses and organizations for taking the time to let the people of our community know what opportunities are out there.”

The free event will take place from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. at Ogdensburg’s Oddfellow’s Hall.

Senator Ritchie encourages those who cannot attend her St. Lawrence County Job Fair to visit her online Jobs Bank—which features thousands of jobs available across New York State—available on her website.
