

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Mark Grisanti

2014-15 New York State Budget

Mark Grisanti

April 4, 2014

ISSUE:

- Budget

A graphic with a grey background. On the left, there is a collage of seven small images: a hand holding a green apple, a family walking on a path, a group of people wearing hard hats, a woman in a graduation cap, a soldier in camouflage, a group of people in a field, and two children looking at a book. To the right of the collage, the text reads "The 2014-2015 State Budget: Giving All New Yorkers the Opportunity to Succeed" in a large, bold, black serif font. In the bottom right corner, there is a circular seal of the New York State Senate, featuring the state coat of arms and the words "NEW YORK STATE" and "SENATE".

The State Senate has completed final adoption of the New York State Budget for the 2014-2015 Fiscal Year.

This marks the fourth consecutive year that the Senate has successfully passed an on-time budget that achieves our key goals of controlling spending, reducing the tax burden on families, and increasing opportunities for all New Yorkers.

Click on the link below to access to a number of documents related to the budget, including final school runs, enacted budget bills, and information regarding the Governor's original Executive Budget proposal. We encourage you to visit this section of our website on a regular basis to learn more about the new budget and how it will impact your family and your community.

<http://www.nysenate.gov/GetTheBudgetFacts>