Senator Jack M. Martins (R-7th Senate District) recently attended the Albertson Fire Company's annual installation ceremony where he honored two of the Department's leaders for their service to the community.

Senator Martins presented outgoing Chief Carl D'Antonio and Outgoing President Michael Horne with copies of legislative resolutions he sponsored in the New York State Senate honoring their service to the Albertson Fire Company and the Albertson community. With passage of the resolutions, Chief D'Antonio and President Horne's achievements will forever be part of the official record of the New York State Senate.
