

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Patty Ritchie

Ritchie Honors “Women of Distinction”

PATTY RITCHIE May 2, 2014

| ISSUE: CONSTITUENTS CORNER

Image not found or type unknown

State Senator Patty Ritchie honored more than two dozen “Women of Distinction” from Central and Northern New York—including advocates, activists, teachers and change-makers—at a special ceremony Thursday at Watertown’s historic Flower Memorial Library.

“I’m always humbled by the actions and accomplishments of the women I recognize through the Women of Distinction program, and this year was no different” said Senator Ritchie.

CLICK HERE TO WATCH VIDEO OF THE CEREMONY

TO READ MORE ABOUT THE 2014 HONOREES, CLICK HERE**

“This group truly gives new meaning to what it means to be a woman in today’s society—they’re bright, determined, selfless and most importantly, working to make a difference in the communities we live in.”

The Women of Distinction program honors women’s history in the Empire State by recognizing outstanding leaders and everyday citizens from the present who are making a difference.

This year’s honorees include the following:

Jefferson County

Joanne Lazore

Cari McAvoy

JoAnn Reed

Oswego County

Stacy Austin-Root

Jane Backus

Melissa Baker

Amanda Capeling

Norene Cook

Karrie Damm, LMFT

Sandy Delano

Carol Gazitano

Kelly Glasgow

Tracy Henry

Michelle Hughes

Maureen McClain

Melanie Proper

Denise Simmons

Roxanne Stuart

Reverend Brenda Weissenberg

Reverend Meredith Williams

Susan Witmer

Teresa Woolson

St. Lawrence County

Ilene Burke

Virginia Davey

Imogene Wager

Lila Youngs

