Senator Jack M. Martins (R-7th Senate District) recently visited East Hills Elementary School in Roslyn to congratulate 2nd grade student Emma Pnini on being chosen as a first place winner in the Senate's Earth Day Poster Contest.

Emma's entry focused on the importance of "reducing, reusing, and recycling" in order to protect the environment. As a first place winner, Emma's poster was displayed in the State

Legislative Office Building in Albany along with those of the other winners from across the state.
