(Roosevelt, Island, NY)- Senator Serrano joined the Roosevelt Island community in celebration of "Roosevelt Island Day." Roosevelt Island Day occurs annually and is an action packed day of activities for the entire community.

"This celebration is always filled with music and entertainment, fun games for kids, and informational booths for everyone to enjoy," said Senator Serrano. "Every year, 'Island Day' gets bigger and better, and this year's festivities provided a great opportunity for folks to come out and enjoy all that Roosevelt Island has to offer! Many thanks to all the great folks on Roosevelt Island for this wonderful tradition," concluded Serrano.
